

Credit: KSV

As there are no formal requirements or rules, audiences can expect an uncensored festival full of fiction and documentaries, with a focus on decolonisation, visibilisation and reinforcement of narratives.

Find more information here.

ArtContest, Botanique, until Sunday 4 February

Ten artists have been chosen to showcase their artwork at the Botanique concert venue near Brussels North. In the coming weeks, four winners will be selected by a panel of judges. ArtContest aims to promote the creative work of contemporary Belgian artists or artists living in Belgium aged 35 or under and contribute to their development.

PAULIUS ŠLIAUPA, THE MONK, 2021

Explore the works of Judith E. Geerts who makes reference to architectural systems and devices found in public space and produces structures that undermine and reflect their function, alongside Juliette Vanwaterloo's rugs and embroideries that reflect the Yellow Vests movement.